

Malaysia bids for the 7th World Union of Wound Healing Societies (WUWHS) conference 2026

Harikrishna KR Nair is Editor-in-Chief of Wounds Asia; Head and Professor of the Wound Care Unit, Department of Internal Medicine, Kuala Lumpur Hospital, Malaysia

The World Union of Wound Healing Societies (WUWHS) conference is held every four years once and is noted to be the “Wound Olympics” with more than 6000 delegates from a hundred over countries. It began in Melbourne, Australia in the year 2000 and has been conducted in Paris, Toronto, Yokohama and Florence. The 6th WUWHS conference will be held in Abu Dhabi next year — delayed because of the COVID-19 pandemic

The Malaysian Society of Wound Care Professionals (MSWCP) is bidding for this huge conference to be held in the picturesque city of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia in the Kuala Lumpur Conference Center. Our theme is ‘Global paradigm shift: wound management specialty and recognition’. The next question is WHY? For more than 21 years we have trying to get recognition globally as wound care specialists and consultants and failing miserably. This time we will succeed as this will be a unified front from all countries in the WUWHS. Bringing them together as a great, strong and single family, providing the legacy that we want to leave after we are gone.

This bid is supported by the Asian region which has more than two thirds the world population. The Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Tourism as well as the Malaysian Convention and Exhibition Bureau are in full support of this bid. It’s time to join hands and be a unified force in imparting knowledge, education, support and resources to the countries that require help. Let’s make a difference. Come support the Malaysian bid.

Why MSWCP? MSWCP has been helping many countries with books, wound care kits with advanced wound products in Malaysia and the whole region especially during disasters and education. We want to empower people with education and resources to attain standard of care. Now after 21 years, MSWCP is ready to carry the torch of the Wound Olympics. MSWCP will celebrate the 25th anniversary or the Silver Jubilee in the most magnificent way with all countries working together for a common goal. This is the legacy we want to leave in the world.

Thank you for your support and passion in wound healing.

Stay safe and take care. God bless you.
